

TIME

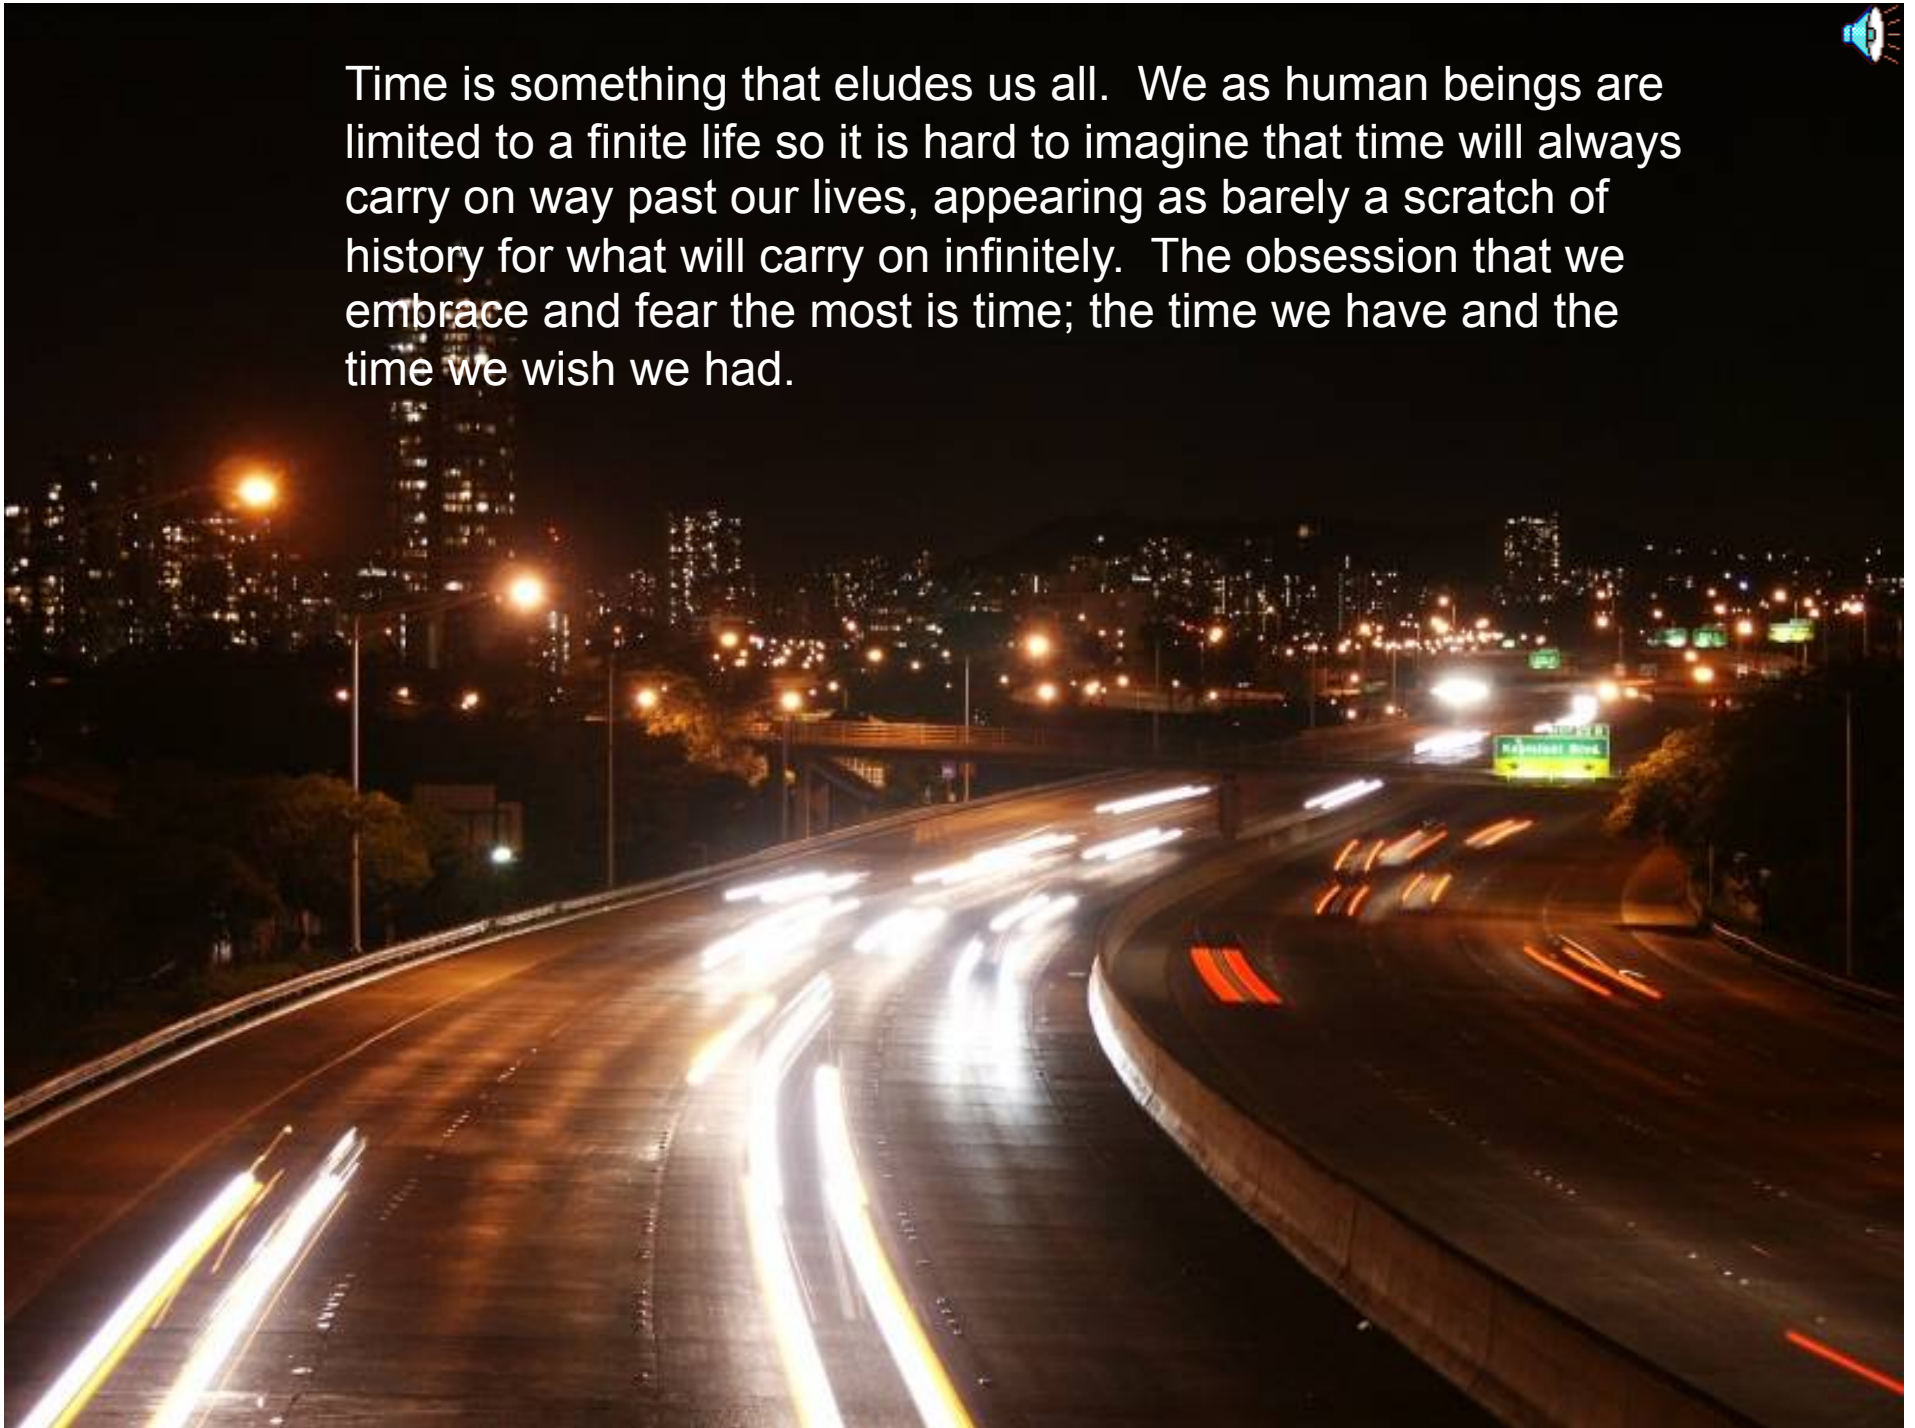

Time presses upon every man. We seek to grasp it, but fail, as we each must learn that there are many things in the universe that are beyond our control.

A Photo Essay By

There is a theory which states that if ever anyone discovers exactly what the universe is for and why it is here, it will instantly disappear and be replaced by something even more bizarre and inexplicable...

Time is something that eludes us all. We as human beings are limited to a finite life so it is hard to imagine that time will always carry on way past our lives, appearing as barely a scratch of history for what will carry on infinitely. The obsession that we embrace and fear the most is time; the time we have and the time we wish we had.

...There is another theory which states that this has already happened.

Douglas Adams,
Hitchhikers guide to the galaxy

